

LA HOSA CODE OF CONDUCT

For All Members

To Be Returned to The Chapter Advisor

A good reputation enables members to take pride in their organization. HOSA has earned an excellent reputation over the years. Your conduct at any Louisiana HOSA function should make a positive contribution to the reputation that has been established. Your behavior at all times should be that it reflects credit to you, your family, your school, your state, and Louisiana HOSA.

1. Member conduct is the responsibility of the local chapter advisor, state advisor, or chaperone. Students shall keep their authorized attending adult informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times. HOSA name badges should be worn at all times during events.
2. You are expected to attend all meetings and other scheduled activities. Name badges, if supplied, shall be worn at all times.
3. Please be prompt and show respect to those in attendance and on stage. Members are to report any accidents, injuries, or illnesses to their local chapter advisor, state advisor, or chaperone immediately.
4. Members are expected to observe the designated curfew during any activities and at hotels. Curfew means being in your own room by the designated hour and not leave it without chaperone permission.
5. If a student is responsible for stealing or vandalism, the student and his/her parents/guardians will be expected to pay for any and all damages.
6. Any long-distance phone calls from hotels or other incidentals charged to room where member stays during HOSA activities will be the responsibility of the individual student and/or parents. Members/participants attending any HOSA activity or event may not purchase, consume, or be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs at any time. Violators will be subject to stringent disciplinary action.
7. Members may not smoke cigarettes or use any vape or chew type product at or during any HOSA activity.
8. No weapons of any sort are allowed on a student's person, in their transportation vehicle or in their belongings at any HOSA activity.
9. Members who disregard the rules will be subject to disciplinary action and will be sent home at their own expense. Parents and school/college administrators will be notified.
10. Members are to abide by the dress code policy at all meetings and activities as specified for that activity.

Meeting Protocol

All meetings should be enthusiastic, but we must not be rude or obnoxious to the others. Members who do not adhere to meeting protocol will be asked to leave and will be required to meet with the State Advisor after the session.

I have read the above Code of Conduct for the Louisiana HOSA State Members and agree to abide by these rules. I understand that failure to perform my duties and follow the above code of conduct may cause my removal as a state member.
